

OvoControl Now Available

- Proven Effective in USDA Study • Keeps resident goose population from growing •
- Helps reduce goose population over time •

OvoControl is a restricted use chemical, available only to licensed PCO's.

	OvoControl • Prevent eggs from hatching
	Feature	Benefit
	Treated bait keeps eggs from hatching	Only active in birds
Apply bait every morning	Habituated birds respond quickly
Keeps population from growing	Reduced gosling count
Integrated program	Works with other techniques

	OvoControl Feeders • Broadcast bait
	Feature	Benefit
	Heavy duty construction	Season long performance
Digital control	Easy to use
Remote control	Operate feeder from a distance
35 lb. capacity	Weekly service interval
Available for approved facilities use	Ideal for large sites

	OvoControl Bait • Ready to use formulation
	Feature	Benefit
	Specifically formulated for geese	Excellent palatability
Store at room temperature	1 year shelf life
20 lb. bags	Easy to store and haul
(1) Bynum, K.S., et.al. 2004. Multi-center Field Study of Nicarbazine Bait for use in the Reduction of Hatching of Eggs Laid by Local Canada Goose (Branta canadensis) Flocks. Technical Report QA-1102. National Wildlife Research Center, Fort Collins, CO. 130p.		